

SOLID CAR CAROLINA BRIGHTS CIGARETTES

FOR THE HANCOCK Cigar Co., Richmond, Va.

C. N. O. & T. P.
13638

CAROLINA
BRIGHTS
CIGARETTES

CAROLINA
BRIGHTS
CIGARETTES

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

FAR WEST END

Mrs. James C. Totty has returned home after a pleasant visit to the home of her parents, No. 407 Randolph Street.

Mr. Frank Shingler, of Georgia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Malvern Omond, of "Idle Repose," Home Place.

Mr. L. S. Whitmore and family are spending some time at Mount Crawford.

The many friends of Mrs. J. Hehring, of Randolph Street, will be pleased to learn that she is rapidly recovering from the effects of her recent accident.

After a pleasant visit to relatives in the country, Mrs. Everett Clay, has returned to her home, No. 222 Randolph Street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert Thompson have returned home from Newport News, where they have been the guests of Mrs. O'Neil, Mrs. Thompson's mother, for the past week.

Mrs. Rebecca Blackburn has returned home after spending some time here visiting friends and relatives.

Misses Minnie and Edna Bethel, of West Main Street, are spending the month of August at Ocean Springs.

Mrs. Walter Torrance is spending the month of August with friends near West Point.

Mrs. John F. Miller, Sr., is suffering with a badly swollen hand which was caused, it is thought, by the bite of a mosquito. Mrs. Miller was bitten upon the middle finger of her right hand, where she was wearing two band rings.

The swelling was so rapid that she was unable to have the rings filed off in time, and as the consequence that adds to her suffering.

Among the "West End People" at Mt. Elliott Springs, is Miss Laura Carney, of West Clay Street.

Dr. W. P. Adams, of Georgia, is the guest of friends at "Home Place."

The Misses Maggie, Mattie and Hattie Hammond, are spending some time in Brunswick county, visiting friends and relatives.

The Misses Virginia and Eva Callis left Saturday for a visit of some length, taking in the counties of King and Queen, Northampton and Westmoreland.

Miss Lizzie O'Mara is able to be out again after her recent attack of tonsillitis.

The Stay-at-Home Whist Club was delightfully entertained on Monday evening last, by Miss Rutherford, of No. 120 West Avenue. Those leading with big scores were between Mrs. A. P. Wilmer and Mrs. Bland Smith, Mrs. Spilman and Miss Rutherford. On Monday next the club will be entertained by Mrs. Webster at "The Chesterfield."

Miss Winnie Miller is expected home today from "The Ridge," where she has been visiting Mrs. Shepersen, of that place.

Mrs. W. E. Robertson, of No. 312 Randolph Street, accompanied by her children, is visiting relatives in Mechanicsburg county.

During the last two weeks workmen have been busily engaged in removing the large cotton-wood trees from the lower side of Short Street between Main and Cary, in order that a curbing and a paved gutter could be placed there, which, when finished, will be a big improvement along that street, which was formerly nothing but a mud-bank.

Another big improvement in this section which the residents will be proud of when finished is the new brick wall which is now being placed around the Randolph Street School which will add greatly to the appearance of the building.

McClay Whitte, of Beach Street, is now in Canada where he will stay until the last of August.

Mrs. S. Halstead, of Portsmouth, was recently the guest of Mrs. George Donald, of No. 224 West Cary Street.

After a pleasant visit to the home of his aunt on Randolph Street, Mr. Clifton Powell has returned to his home in Water-view, Va.

Mr. Scott Dansev and sister was recently the guest of friends at Sewell, Va.

Mrs. Raymond Smith, of No. 22 South First Street, is spending the month of August at Atlantic City.

Miss Jennie Thurston, of Walnut Hill, was recently the guest of Mrs. Chas. Thurston, of Taylor Street.

Mrs. Winston Ford, of West Cary Street, will leave in a few days for Ocean View where she will spend some time.

Miss Lena Pollard, of No. 1011 Floyd Avenue, hopes to leave in a few days in company with her mother for Hawley Springs where they will spend some time in hopes that the change will be beneficial to Mrs. Pollard's health, who has been in bad health lately.

Miss Virginia Allen, of South Pine

Street, has as her guest, her cousin, Miss Julia W. Langhorne, of Portsmouth.

After a pleasant trip to Boston, where he has been spending his vacation, Mr. H. F. Talbot, of No. 1842 West Grace Street, has returned home.

Miss Emma Dought is in Roanoke as the guest of friends.

Mrs. A. von Rosenek and daughter, Mrs. Grinnell, of West Grace Street, are spending the summer in Matthews county.

Mrs. J. T. Bryant, of No. 114 South Belvidere Street has as her guest, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Covington, accompanied by their son, Byrie Covington, of St. Paul, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. Covington were former residents of Richmond, but for the past fifteen years have been making their home in St. Paul.

Mrs. C. O. B. Cowardin was recently called to the bedside of Miss Annie Cowardin, in Gloucester county.

Mrs. Lucy F. Drew and daughter Carrie of West Grace Street, are on a visit to Afton, Va.

After a most delightful trip to the city of Buffalo, Toronto and Niagara Falls, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stern, of Grove Avenue, have returned to the city.

Miss Mary Frayser, of West Grace Street, is spending the month of August on the eastern coast. The past week she was stopping at Ashbury Park.

Mr. J. W. Helser, Jr., of Grove Avenue, has returned home after a week's stay at Ocean View.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Stewart are in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Morgan and family are spending the month of August in Ashland, Va.

Mrs. Cary Stern has joined her children at Butler, Va., where they are spending the month of August and September amid the scenes of Mr. Stern's childhood.

It will be with regret to the many friends of Mrs. Stephen Meach, of No. 2121 Beverly Street to learn that she is critically ill.

The Thurston and family are now domiciled in their new home on Franklin Street, corner of Cleveland.

Mr. Ross Southward, a popular employee of "Uncle Sam" at the postoffice, will leave in a few days on a cruise down the noble "James" into the Chesapeake Bay, where he will spend about ten days at deep sea fishing.

HIGHLAND SPRINGS

There will be service in the M. E. Church to-day, Sunday-school at the usual hour, 10:30 a. m.

The Union League will meet to-night at 8 o'clock, when a praise meeting will be held with Mrs. De Witt Hubbard as leader. This promises to be an attractive service and all are urged to attend.

The lawn party given on the beautiful lawn at the home of the Misses Henrich between the Orioles and the Highland Springs boys resulted in favor of Highland Springs. Score—14 to 4. The ladies made—13 in favor of Highland Springs.

Mrs. W. R. Allen and daughter, Mahel, were just returned from a most enjoyable sojourn at Grand View Beach, where guests at "Bellevue," the home of Mrs. W. P. Turner during the past week, were a guest of Mrs. W. P. Turner expects to leave in a day or two for a visit to friends at "Bellevue."

Mrs. Jennie Hudgens, of Roanoke Cottage, is still at the "Elms," in Chesterfield county, but her friends are looking for her return for her return.

Mrs. P. R. Gerow made a business trip to Richmond on Friday.

Mr. W. P. Turner was a guest at the "Tower House" on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Smith were overwhelmed with grief at the sudden and untimely death of their daughter, Mrs. Westgate, of Pawtucket, Rhode Island. Mr. Smith left at once for Rhode Island, but Mrs. Smith was unable to accompany him.

Mr. DeWitt Hubbard is slowly improving after his recent illness.

Mr. Stovall is spending his vacation at ### his home, "Fiedmont Lodge."

Mrs. Spier and two children of Richmond, were guests during the week of Mrs. Isabel Bibb, at Plum Cottage.

Miss Lella Atkinson is spending some time with friends in Cumberland county, where she is being delightfully entertained.

Mr. Stagg Powell and other friends of Miss Nina Cotton were guest of hers at "Lynchburg" on Thursday evening.

Mr. H. T. Woodcock, who is sojourning in the mountains of Virginia for the benefit of his health, is reported to be improving and will shortly return home.

There will be a Sunday-school rally at Corlath M. E. Church, near Seven Pines this afternoon. Rev. J. Maxey, of Union Station Church, will give an address on the occasion.

Mrs. S. W. McKenny, and Mrs. Luther Winn, of Fair Oaks, passed through the village Friday en route to Richmond.

Mrs. Richard Tholander, who was injured in the late accident on the Seven Pines car line, after careful examination and treatment by her physicians, is pronounced much improved.

The following were the guests during the week of Mrs. W. McKenny: Mr. Charles Hewitt, Mr. Oroske and son, Percy, Mrs. Polindexter, of Richmond, Mr. Charles Hahny, and Miss Alma, Pullman, of North Carolina.

CHESTNUT HILL AND HIGHLAND PARK

Mr. Linwood Williams, of Dayton, Ohio, is the guest of Mrs. Florence Williams, of Second Avenue, Chestnut Hill.

Dr. J. K. Walthall, pastor of Mizpah Presbyterian Church, was the guest last week of friends and relatives in Farnville, Va.

Mrs. Powhatan Nash, of Third Avenue, has returned to her home, after spending some time at Virginia Beach.

Mr. William Gillespie left last week to visit friends in Alabama.

Master Ollie Dextine, of Highland Park, who has been quite sick for several days, is now somewhat improved.

Miss Agnes, of W. McKenny, D. C., was the guest last week of friends on the "Hill."

Mr. Garland H. Clarke and daughter, Miss Mildred Clarke, have returned to their home on Third Avenue, after a delightful visit to Mrs. John R. Livesey, of Cape Henry, Va.

Mr. Chas. Hodgson, of Highland Park, is visiting Miss Annie O'wathmore, of King William county.

Mrs. and Mrs. Horace F. Baker, of Fourth Avenue, spent last week with friends in Charlottesville, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cottrell, of Third Avenue, left last week to spend some time visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Alice Clarke, of Dayton, Ohio.

Miss Edna Lockwood and brother, Master Hugh Lockwood, of Washington, D. C., are spending several days with their aunt, Mrs. Cortez V. Jones, of Fourth Avenue.

Miss Louise Higerson, of Richmond, has been the guest of Mrs. Charles Eubank, of Second Avenue, for the past week.

Mr. Hewitt, of Charles City County, has been visiting friends on the "Hill."

Miss Lou Grotter, of Waterbury, Conn., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joseph P. Fourqurean, of Chestnut Hill.

Mr. John Price, of Fourth Avenue, is spending some time in New York.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wright, of Augusta county, are the guests of Mr. A. F. Mosby, of Chestnut Hill.

Miss Rosalie Shafter, who has been spending the past six weeks with friends in Lynchburg, Va., is expected to return to her home on Third Avenue within a few days.

Mrs. Phippen, of Fifth Avenue, continues to improve.

Mrs. H. C. Watkins is quite sick at her residence on Chesapeake Hill.

Mrs. Barratt is spending the month of August with her brother, Mr. Smith, of Fourth Avenue.

Mr. Lynn Wingfield continues quite sick at his residence on Third Avenue.

Mrs. Smith, of Fourth Avenue, expects to leave for her home next week to visit relatives in North Carolina.

LEE DISTRICT

Mrs. John B. Harwood, of No. 2000 Monument Avenue, is spending some time with her brother, Mr. Marion G. Tyler, at Spillman, West Virginia. Later Mrs. Harwood will go to Buena Vista, Va., where she will remain for four weeks.

Mrs. Jennie Phillips and two children, Master Turpin, and little Miss Nellie Phillips, are spending some time at Woodlawn, the home of Mr. M. H. Baker, in Columbia, Va.

Miss Lullie Smithers and Master Edward Smithers, of No. 2200 Ivy Street, are spending some time with their aunt, Mrs. Broad, at Hydas, Hanover county, Va.

Miss Nellie Rodman, Council, of Isle of Richmond county, is the guest of her cousin, Mr. Unesa Council, No. 2504 West Grace Street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis and little daughter Ruth have returned to their home, No. 2021 West Grace Street, after a ten days' visit to Mr. Davis' mother, Mrs. W. H. Hope, at Mapleton, Hanover county.

Mrs. George L. Bantley is the guest of Mrs. Erasmus P. Ford, No. 2430 Park Avenue.

Miss Minnie R. Howard has returned to her home at Casco, Hanover county, after having been the guest of Mrs. Mayland Rupp at No. 2430 Park Avenue.

Miss Marie Taylor, of Norfolk, Va., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Clarence E. Bond, No. 2430 Park Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John Galloway, of Baltimore, Md., are the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Henry Rupp.

Mr. and Mrs. William Daniel Turner and two little children, Dan and Madison, are the guests of Mrs. Thomas Moss Hundley, No. 2337 West Grace Street.

Little Hudson Matthews, who has been at Memorial Hospital for five or six weeks, was worse during the past week, on account of the damp, rainy weather, it was thought.

Mrs. Charles Pohle and Miss Maggie Maff, of Baltimore, are the guests of Mrs. Harry Lee Matthews, at No. 2502 Park Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Smoot, of Norfolk, Va., are visiting Mrs. T. M. Hundley, No. 2337 West Grace Street.

George Taylor Hundley has just returned from a pleasant trip to Wilmington, Delaware, Atlantic City and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Julian Minson, of No. 2335 West Grace Street, is visiting relatives and friends in York county.

Mr. Thomas Bedford Elliott has gone to Salem, Va., where Mrs. Elliott is spending the summer.

The many friends of Mr. George A. Baker will be glad to know that he is on his way home from the Philippines.

Mrs. Baker is summing at Woodlawn, Fluvanna county, where her mother and other relatives are spending some time.

Mrs. Henry Rupp, two daughters, Misses Grace and Lottie, and a few relatives and friends are camping at Ocean View during this month.

Mrs. S. C. Dudley has returned to her home on Church Hill after having spent the month of August at Ocean View.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert Thompson and children have returned to their home, No. 2205 Park Avenue, after visiting Mrs. William Neal in Newport News.

GAINES MILL

Hazel, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bowles, running quite sick, Miss Myrtle Waters left Saturday for Lynchburg, where she expects to spend several weeks with friends.

Miss Edgar Bates is again able to be out after being confined to his home by sickness for several months.

Miss Ercie and her sister, Beadles, are spending some time with relatives at Highland Springs.

Miss Maud Brooks is quite sick at her home, near Mechanicsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt, of King and Queen, are the guests of their uncle, John Verlander.

Miss Alice Adams, of Spring Hill, is quite sick in her home at this place.

Master Talley, of Sunny Side, is still suffering with his throat.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gauding and Master Parker, of the Cliffs, will leave Tuesday for West Point. While absent they expect to visit friends in King and Queen.

Miss Alice Adams, of Spring Hill, is quite sick in her home at this place.

Master Talley, of Sunny Side, is still suffering with his throat.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gauding and Master Parker, of the Cliffs, will leave Tuesday for West Point. While absent they expect to visit friends in King and Queen.

Miss Alice Adams, of Spring Hill, is quite sick in her home at this place.

Master Talley, of Sunny Side, is still suffering with his throat.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gauding and Master Parker, of the Cliffs, will leave Tuesday for West Point. While absent they expect to visit friends in King and Queen.

BARTON HEIGHTS

Mr. Percy Chisholm has returned home from a two weeks stay with relatives in Louisiana.

Mrs. W. M. Luck will leave this week for Ocean Grove, New Jersey.

Miss Estelle Hazelgrove has returned home from West Point.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Marshall have moved to 411 North Avenue.

Mrs. R. W. Payne has returned home from an outing at Virginia Beach.

Mrs. Ellen, of Newport News, is the guest of Mrs. W. T. Coalter.

Miss Maggie Rouch has returned from an outing at Virginia Beach.

Mr. McComb, of Staunton, has moved to Barton Avenue.

Mr. Willie Duggan has returned from a pleasant visit to his brother, Mr. John Duggan, of Baltimore.

Mr. Bruce Wallace, of Rockbridge, is visiting Mrs. J. D. Davison, of Barton Avenue.

Miss E. J. Davison and brother, Evans, have left for a visit to friends and relatives in Rockbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Matthews, of Raleigh, have returned to their home after a delightful visit to Mrs. J. M. Marshall, of Meadon Bridge Road.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Purcell and children, Mrs. Ernest Rogers, Mrs. Morris and daughter, Emily, of Dendron, Surry county, who have been visiting Miss Annie C. Kuyk, have left for Goshon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Patchfield and children, have left for Philadelphia to spend the summer with relatives.

Mr. Willie Gaine, of Norfolk, who has been visiting on the Heights, is now visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Goyne, of Pike's.

Mr. W. D. Peyton and sister-in-law, Miss Lella Davison, who have been visiting in Buena Vista, have returned to their homes.

Mrs. J. P. Haupt has returned from Philadelphia.

Mr. E. S. Goodloe has returned from a business trip to Clifton Forge.

Mr. W. C. Shubert, of Newberne, N. C., who has been visiting Mr. W. R. Bache, has returned.

Mr. Morris Barritt, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Starritt, has left for Hinton.

Mrs. Edward Cain is quite sick at her home on Monterey.

Mrs. Jackson S. Wise, who has been visiting on the Heights, has left for her home in Parkersburg.

Mrs. George H. Ware and sister, Miss Norma, who have been visiting Mrs. T. J. Collins, of King and Queen county, are now visiting Mrs. Joe Jones, at Alderson, accompanied by their guest, Miss Gussie Collins.

Miss Julia Huff, of Meadowville, Pa., is the guest of friends.

Miss Lucy Lindley will leave soon for Charlottesville.

Mrs. Frank B. Tolson and son, Jack, left Wednesday for several weeks' stay with friends in Hinton, W. Va.

Mr. W. D. Peyton and daughters, Virginia and Ida, left Friday for Frederickburg.

Miss Lella Davison, of Barton Avenue, left Friday for Frederickburg.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Broese and daughter, of Lamb Avenue, have returned from a pleasant trip to Ocean View.

Miss Edith Ragland, who has been visiting Miss Kathleen Gordon, in Lynchburg, will return home this week.

Mrs. B. A. Overby is quite sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Madison Flanagan, of North Avenue.

Mrs. C. R. Cullen is visiting relatives in Hampton.

Miss Hancha Gilman has returned to her home on North Avenue from a pleasant trip to Boston.

Mr. R. F. Luck is quite sick at his home on Virginia Avenue.

Miss Rosa Hazelgrove, who has been visiting Miss Annie Smith, in Hanover, has returned.

Miss Aggie Earman will leave this week for Orange Courthouse to visit relatives.

Mr. Robert Kidwell, who has been visiting his brother, Mr. Walter Kidwell, at Keswick, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Mason have left for their home at Gordonsville after a visit to Mrs. Wm. S. Chaldwell, of Brook-lark Park.

RIDGE HAPPENINGS

Mrs. J. J. Walton and daughter, Elsie, and Mrs. Edgar Walton and little son, Vernon, are spending the summer at their country home, "Fernville," Henrico county.

Mr. Richardson, of Petersburg, spent Saturday and Sunday at "Glenburney," as the guest of Mr. Coker.

Mrs. Jane Franklin expects to have with her shortly her sister, Mrs. Whitfield Turnley, of Suffolk, Va.

Miss Lottie Wade and Miss Jessie Urban, of Ridge, have returned home after spending some time in the home of the former cousin, Mr. Wade, of upper Henrico.

Miss Ann Parker, of Dover Mills, spent a few days last week with Mrs. J. T. Eubank, of Westhampton Park.

Mrs. Ada Holt, of Nine Mile Locks, was on Sunday last the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Z. Franklin, of Ridge.

Miss Mattie Eubank, of Westhampton Park, has returned home after a visit to Mrs. Oscar Jones, near Danaborton.

Miss Carrie Eubank, of Westhampton Park, is spending the weeks with Miss Nora Ford, of Ridge.

Thomas N. Brown, who has been seriously ill for some time, is thought to be slightly improved.

Mrs. W. J. Pepper, of "Rose Lawn," spent last Sunday in Newport News.

Henry Franklin, of Westhampton, who has been quite sick for some time, is greatly improved.

Walter Ford, of Ridge, is convalescing after a severe spell of illness.

Miss Lela Pepper has returned home after a week's visit to her friend, Miss Nor. of Newport News.

Leon Perkins, of Rio Vista, who has been quite sick for some days, is much better.

POLE GREEN

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union with hold their annual picnic at Shady Grove M. E. Church, Tuesday, August 15th. At night there will be a medal contest.

Shady Grove Sunday-school contributed twenty-five dollars to the Methodist Orphanage this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Melton and children were the guests of Mrs. M. E. Baskett, last Sunday.

Miss Maud Brooks, of Mechanicsville Pike, is quite sick of fever.

Mrs. W. P. Stubbs and little daughter, Miss Elizabeth, of Louisville, Ky., will visit the former's parents here this month.

Miss Grace Talley is sick in her home near Shady Grove.

Misses Sadie and Rosa Hughes, of Newman's spent a day recently at Buck-roe Beach.

Mrs. E. L. Luck, of Elmont, spent a day recently with relatives here.

W. C. Bendler's youngest child still remains quite sick at "Walnut Lane."

Notice

Of Special Interest to All Times-Dispatch Readers:

Beginning MONDAY, September 4, 1905, The Times-Dispatch, Richmond, Va., will add a MONDAY MORNING PAPER to its present issue, thus publishing every week day and Sunday; seven issues each week—a paper every day in the year.

NEW SUBSCRIPTION RATES will go into effect on Monday, September 4, 1905, as follows:

New Rates		New Rates
For Subscribers Receiving the Paper		For Subscribers Receiving the Paper
By Mail:		By Carrier:
	One Six		One One
	Year. Mos.		Year. Mo.
Daily and Sunday (7 issues), $5.00 $3.00.		Daily and Sunday (7 issues), $4.50 55c.
Daily, without Sunday (6 issues), 4.00 2.00.		Daily, without Sunday (6 issues), 3.50 35c.
Sunday Edition only, 2.00 1.00.		Sunday Edition only, 50c. a copy.

IMPORTANT:

All subscriptions (for one year or six months) will be accepted at present rates until Monday, September 4, 1905, and will include all issues published for the edition ordered.

Present Rates		Present Rates
For Subscribers Receiving the Paper		For Subscribers Receiving the Paper
By Mail:		By Carrier:
	One Six		One One
	Year. Mos.		Year. Mo.
Daily and Sunday (6 issues), $5.00 $2.50.		Daily and Sunday (6 issues), $6.00 50c.
Daily, without Sunday (5 issues), 3.00 1.50.		Daily, without Sunday (5 issues), 3.50 30c.
Sunday Edition only, 2.00 1.00.		Sunday Edition only, 50c. a copy.

If your order is received with remittance for either one year or six months' subscription on or before Monday, September 4th, the present rates will apply, and the Monday paper included for the full time of subscription without extra cost. Call 'phone 38 (Circulation Department) or address

The Times-Dispatch, Richmond, Va.

Teach the children to save, only a richer inheritance than wealth itself.

Wealth can be lost or squandered, but good habits grow stronger with age.

Start the boy or girl with an account with the Planters National Bank, for more, as you prefer.

Three per cent. compound interest will help swell the sum, while valuable lessons in financial methods will be taught. The youthful mind is most receptive.

Do it now.

Planters National Bank
Savings Department,
Twelfth and Main Sts.,
Richmond, Va.

Capital and Profits $300,000.00
Surplus and Profits $100,000.00